

WHAT TEACHERS SAY:

"A generous and dynamic educator who worked very hard to enable my students to take creative risks, in a safe environment, and produce writing that they could be proud of. I am confident that Robin would lead valuable writing workshops in any school she visited." —Gail Robinson, Grade 9 English teacher, Southridge School, Surrey

"Robin is a vibrant speaker who was able to capture the attention of fifty-five teenagers who are often difficult to please... Fast-paced and to the point, she gave the reluctant as well as the accomplished writer concrete strategies to improve their skills." —Grade 8 English teacher, Victoria

For more information or to book a school visit, email Robin:

robin@robinstevenson.com

ABOUT ROBIN

Robin Stevenson is a Governor General's Literary Award finalist and two-time BC Book Prize nominee. She is the author of nine novels for children and teens. Her books include an early chapter book, two juvenile novels, three young adult novels, and three teen novels for reluctant readers.

Robin has a background in social work and teaches both writing and social work courses at the University of Victoria. She is an experienced teacher and group facilitator, and enjoys working with children and teens of all ages and abilities.

Robin is available for creative writing workshops, book talks and author presentations for grades one to twelve. Her presentations are interactive and inspiring for both reluctant readers and emerging writers.

ROBIN STEVENSON

Now booking school visits for 2010/2011

Engaging presentations and inspiring writing workshops for elementary, middle and high school students.

FEES

Presentation (45-90 min): $250

Workshop (60-90 min): $250

Half-day (three hours): $400

- Reduced rate available for schools booking more than one session.
- Presentations for up to 200 students. (For writing workshops and for early primary grades, small groups are preferable.)
- Maximum three grade level spread per session (eg. grades 4–6 or grades 10–12).

CONTACT

To learn more about Robin or her books, visit her website:

www.robinstevenson.com

Send Robin an email for more information or to book a visit for your school:

robin@robinstevenson.com

ROBIN'S NOVELS

For Grades 1–3

Ben's Robot

For Grades 4–7

Liars and Fools (coming fall 2010)

Impossible Things

Dead in the Water

For Grades 8–12

Inferno

A Thousand Shades of Blue

Out of Order

In the Woods

Big Guy

WHAT TEACHERS SAY:

"Robin's positive and inviting manner created an atmosphere where students felt comfortable, engaged and willing to share their writing responses with her and an audience of their peers, as well as eager for Stevenson's immediate and incisive feedback."

Students reflected appreciation for the opportunity of Robin's visit, and some have been inspired to continue with a piece of writing begun in the workshop. I look forward to having her back to our school, and will plan for a longer session next time!"
—Vivian Hicks, teacher-librarian, Bayside Middle School, Brentwood Bay

"Extremely well-organized, interesting and interactive... Robin had a wonderful sense of humour and was able to engage the class with ease... I recommend Robin to you without reservation." —Anita Roberts, Gifted Education Co-ordinator and English teacher, Esquimalt High School, Victoria

Full references available upon request